Latest news:

“Leadership is equally to blame” for Alderman Stokes recent behavior by Tim Schmidt 2-20-2013 reprinted from Facebook with permission.

Heard that Alderman Stokes took it off the rails at last night’s Kankakee City Council meeting. Aldermen walked out. Facebook commentary attacking him on professionalism, ethics, being disruptive and disrespectful. While I am no fan of this kind of behavior, you have to put yourself in Jim’s shoes.

This is an administration that tried to take Jim Stokes career (firefighter almost 30 years) away from him (August 2011). That lasted more than a year.

Imagine if your employer tried to do that to you and you had to keep your household together. Five department heads coming after you to destroy your reputation and livelihood.

Tell the ACLU (Protector of Illinois foster youth): THIS IS UNACCEPTABLE:

In November 2012, a majority of Kankakee Aldermen voted Yes to housing youth in the old Senesac Funeral Home without doing State recommended tests for possible embalming fluid spills.

Run the tests, Indian Oaks.

These youth have been abused enough.

City of Kankakee invents "Quorum of Two"

(Read background article below)

According to the two remaining members of the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners, the Mayor’s Office told them they now have a "quorum of two" (instead of three) and that is sufficient for conducting all business and voting.

We have contacted Attorney General Lisa Madigan’s office regarding this. If you have read the Continue reading »
